FLOOR DEBATE

March 14, 2002 LB 951

bill on parole that's in the Judiciary Committee now that we will be considering in Exec Session next week.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And will that be a priority bill?

SENATOR Dw. PEDERSEN: It would, because of the problem I had with my original priority bill, I think the committee is looking at stripping that out of there and making...putting this in there so it would be a priority bill.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So there is a chance that we can consider the types of things I'm talking about this session still.

SENATOR Dw. PEDERSEN: Yes, there is.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you, Senator.

SENATOR Dw. PEDERSEN: And would save a lot...save the state a lot of money.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you, Senator Pedersen.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Chambers, your light is on next.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, I want to make good use of whatever bills that I can and sometimes I have to be like John the Baptist, for those who may be familiar with the Bible, such as "Judge" Hudkins, and some who may not be. I won't say "Judge" Kruse. I...I appointed you a judge. I appointed "Judge" Erdman and I appointed "Judge" Kruse, and there is something about a surge of power that goes through you when you appoint judges, so I'm not going to take that designation back. John the Baptist said, he was the one who went before somebody, who was coming after him, who was greater. He's preparing the way. What I would like some of this discussion to do is to prepare the way for us to consider legislation that is much broader in scope than this particular bill. As good as this bill is, as wholesome as its purposes are, and as advantageous as the training and experience these inmates will get in performing this work, it is not nearly enough of what we ought to be doing. I'd like to ask Senator
